A New Year for Sharing Jesus with the World

When you think about sharing Jesus, do you wonder how to reach people no matter where they are in their lives?

One of our volunteers shared a story that hopefully will touch your heart. How many times have you needed encouraging words?

"I've been corresponding with a young deaf woman in Ethiopia. She grew up as an orphan and has been a believer since her teens. Tigris is now feeling cut off from any church fellowship because of her inability to understand any of the teaching or to interact as a hearing person would. She felt overwhelmed and depressed because of the upcoming termination of her job as well as heartbroken over a lost love (both she felt were due to her deafness). As we have corresponded and developed a friendship, she now sees God's hand moving in her circumstances and seems to be experiencing much more peace and hope."

This is just one story from 2006 that shows how sharing Jesus on the Internet can change someone's life.

Ministry volunteers that have answered the emails from people who come into the websites this past year often provide encouragement for Christians who have either stepped away from God or are going through a discouraging period in their life.

Below you can see just how many people are experiencing the love of Jesus after searching for Him online.

Those who have never been told about Him will see, and those who have never heard of Him will understand.

Isaiah 52:15

How many will be reached in 2007?

"Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in you. Show me the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul." (Psalm 143:8)

How many times have you prayed for God to show you the path to take? As you seek God's guidance for the ministry in 2007, please pray for the key initiatives God has placed before us.
